A historical world map, likely from the 17th or 18th century, featuring a central text overlay. The map is divided into four quadrants by a large, ornate, yellow-gold frame. The quadrants are labeled: 'TERRA AUSTRALIS INCOGNITA' (South Unknown Land) in the top-left, 'TERRA AUSTRALIS INCOGNITA' (South Unknown Land) in the top-right, 'TERRA AUSTRALIS INCOGNITA' (South Unknown Land) in the bottom-left, and 'TERRA AUSTRALIS INCOGNITA' (South Unknown Land) in the bottom-right. The map shows the outlines of the continents, with the Americas on the left and Europe, Africa, and Asia on the right. The text overlay is a black rectangle with white text that reads: 'the means of daily humiliation liberation to multiply the same'.
